

FRASER SKIES
AREA PRESENTS....

"BEARLY THERE"

A weekend training opportunity for Guiders to learn skills needed for Path or Trail Outdoor Adventure Leadership!

Come and experience camp as the girls would, while learning the skills you need to lead them safely in a camp setting!

Participants can choose to stay indoors or in tents, (first come, first served, with Path participants given first opportunity for indoor spaces).

Date: April 24 to 25, 2010

Location: Camp McLanlin (Abbotsford)

Camp starts at 8:00 a.m. Saturday and ends at noon on Sunday.

Fee: $35 per person (payable to GGC, Fraser Skies Area)

Deadline for application: March 15, 2010.

Contact: Cathy Cook cpcook@shaw.ca
604-856-4363 after 6:00 p.m.

APPLICATION FOR "BEARLY THERE" (OAL TRAINING)

NAME _____ iMis # _____

ADDRESS _____
Street City Postal Code

EMAIL _____ FAX _____

PHONE (daytime) _____ (evening) _____

To assist in planning and completion of the Emergency Response Plan, please provide the following information. Deadline for application is March 15, 2010.

Branch of Guiding you currently volunteer with: _____

Which level of Outdoor Activity Leadership (OAL)
are you working toward? Path _____ Trail _____

Camping experience: _____

Would you prefer to sleep indoors _____ outdoors _____

I may be reached at the following Cell number while travelling _____

EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION

NAME _____ PHONE _____

NAME _____ PHONE _____

The Emergency Contact should be available while you are traveling to and attending the event. They may be contacted if your arrival is delayed or in case of an emergency. Please advise them of your plans.

Please list any serious food allergies. _____

Would you like our Quartermaster to contact you regarding these concerns? _____

You will receive confirmation of your registration, along with further information and a kit list, as soon as possible after the registration deadline of March 15th.

Send this form to: Cathy Cook
5671 247A Street, Langley, BC V2Z 1H2
cpcook@shaw.ca